When a JagMail account is first created, options for viewing the inbox in various ways are displayed in a “Try on a new inbox:” prompt at the top of the Inbox. See Figure 1 below where Classic and Unread first options are highlighted in the prompt:

When this “Try on a new inbox:” prompt is no longer displayed in your inbox, you have the same choices but in a different location. See Figure 2 below:

1. Click on the drop-down arrow to the left of Inbox in the left navigation panel
2. Switch between the selections for Inbox Type
